

Welcome
to St.
Luke's

'Communitas'

Questions: In order to participate in the dwarves' adventure, Bilbo finds himself leaving his home. What is most summed up in the word 'home' for you? What would you find hardest to let go off?

Mark
6:30-44

Mark 6:30

" The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. "

Mark 6:31

He said to them, “Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while”

Romans 8:37-39

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to encourage one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

John 13:17 (NLT)

Now that you know these things,
God will bless you for doing them.

Mark 6:41

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all.

Colossians 4:3

“And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. .”
